Gigs-N-Rigs. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Maya Ritchie (illustrator). Paperback. 366 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Matt Hiatt has recently returned from a tour in Afghanistan with Special Operations. While stationed at Pendleton, the Marines allow him to work for a civilian company called Delta Defense. Delta Defense engineers and develops weapons for the U. S. military and rely on Matts expertise for field-testing the equipment. Since his return from the Middle East, Matt has experienced several recurring dreams about a woman he doesnt know and hasnt met (yet). He documents the dreams in a journal to keep track of their content and recurrence. While at work one morning, Matt receives an instant message from a man named Sesom who warns Matt that people are tracking him and his life is in danger. Sesom invites Matt to meet him at a popular caf near Delta Defense to share more details of his discovery. While Matt is skeptical, he has had a few strange encounters recently and would like to meet Sesom to understand why someone would want to track him. The meeting reveals that people are following Matt and want to kill him before he has a chance to reveal his dreams and visions. Sesom also shares that Matts visions are a catalyst to the beginning of Revelation and an inevitable return of the Messiah. The meeting at the caf ends in bloodshed and Matt witnesses firsthand that a group of evil people intends to end his life. Matt finds out there are Disciples that found Sesom by their own visions and discovery. Matt is unique because Sesom had visions of finding him in the City of Angels, and Matts knowledge could hold the secret to understanding the beginning of Revelation. These modern day Disciples are different than Disciples that...
