CLUBHOUSE TO THE BEST BREAKFAST ON THE ROAD, AN INSIDE VIEW OF A BALLPLAYER'S LIFE

St. Martin's Griffin, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: I have been a major league manager for 11 years. I had the pleasure of managing Doug for 3 of those years in Philadelphia. Dougie was always extremely articulate and well spoken and it certainly comes across in his book. He was the smartest guy on our team, the most humble, and he could lay out base hits with anyone in the league! He was a joy to be around. As good as he was in center field I didn't doubt he would be even more successful off the field! - Terry Francona, manager, Boston Red Sox Doug Glanville is as deep a thinker as any baseball player I've known. His insights about the game and the business are worth the attention of any baseball devotee. - Michael Weiner, Union chief, MLBPA For anyone who loves to know what goes on behind-the-scenes in baseball, Doug's book is a front-row seat to all the action -- on the field, in the clubhouse, and the business side of the game. Allyn Price, Player Relations, MLBPA On a shelf cluttered with the boastful and self-seeking, Doug lifts the blanket concealing the true game and reveals an insight and perspective unlike any other you will find. Penetrating and honest, Doug takes you into the genuine, unveiling what few have the privilege to experience. A book both umpires and players can agree on. - Mike DiMuro, MLB Umpire The Game from Where I Stand is a great book showing that professional athletes are human. It gives true perspective of a major leaguer mindset on and off the field during what is a grueling season. - Derrek Lee, player - Baltimore Orioles The Game from Where I Stand...
